

College of Emergency Nurses NZ conference award nomination: Making a Difference Award

This award is open to registered nurses working in emergency care such as emergency departments and acute care clinics. The judges are the nursing members of the conference organising team.

Name of Nominee:	<input type="text"/>
Nominee workplace: Hospital / Facility	<input type="text"/>
Nominated by:	<input type="text"/>
Your contact number:	<input type="text"/>
Submit your nomination by:	1 October 2021
Submit your nomination to:	Marg Craig marg@conferenceteam.co.nz

Reason for nomination – please consider that the judges are impartial and the more evidence you provide enables the judges to make a sound decision.

Examples: makes a personal and positive impact on emergency nursing in New Zealand; communicates a positive and professional perspective of emergency nursing; make's a positive difference for patients, their family and whānau; uses specific clinical skills that enhance practice; gains positive patient/family/whānau feedback; make's a positive difference for the ED team; influences practice through developing and/or contributing to a new idea in the ED; role models' leadership in clinical practice and model's professional behaviour; uses sound organisational skills; demonstrates understanding in interactions with patients and colleagues; fosters inter-disciplinary relationships within the emergency team, including social strength; make's a positive difference for the organisation; demonstrates problem solving abilities; innovates in in emergency nursing practice delivery.